1. What is a Service Standard?

We want to deliver an excellent Housing Service.

We want your help to make our services better. We want you to let us know if you've got a comment to make, whether it's good or bad on any of our services.

To help us achieve this, we set ourselves high standards of service and stretching performance targets and we monitor how we do against these to make sure we continue to improve the quality of the services we provide to our customers.

All City of Lincoln Council staff have a responsibility to ensure that the services provided to our customers meet the highest possible standards at all times.

These standards have been set because this is what our customers have said are important to them. Customers have been involved in agreeing the standards and will also be involved in monitoring our performance against the standards set.

For more information on our other standards, please contact our office or go to our website www.lincoln.gov.uk

The Council has a dual role as an employer and as a service provider, and will tackle equality issues appropriately in both of these roles.

This policy covers councillors, employees, job candidates, contractors working on our behalf and service users. The principles of the policy underpin all our other policies, service plans, procedures and practices.

- Provide energy advice and information will be made available in other formats, languages, large print, Braille and audiotape and translators or British Sign Language users will be available if appropriate;
- Promote our Energy Advice service to ensure it is accessible to all eligible sections of the community.

5. Energy Advice

The City of Lincoln Council aims to provide a service to residents which meets the highest possible standards at all times.

We aim to ensure that we deal with all your enquiries respectfully and courteously by doing the following things:

- Advise all new Council tenants of the relative efficiency of their homes by providing an Energy Performance Certificate (EPC) during the 'offer' process.
- Explain what the EPC means and what tenants can do to reduce their fuel bills and CO₂ emissions.
- Ensure residents are able to obtain up to date information on the availability of grants and discount schemes that can improve the energy efficiency of their properties and help reduce their fuel bills.

6. Monitoring

We will monitor our Energy Advice performance in the following areas:

- Recording the energy efficiency rating for all properties and striving to improve the SAP (Standard Assessment Performance) rating;
- Record the number of low energy efficient properties that are occupied by tenants receiving income based benefits.
- Record the number of high energy efficient properties that are occupied by tenants receiving income based benefits.

7. Performance

The results of our monitoring of performance against our Service Standards can be found in either your 'Homelink' magazine, performance posters in our reception areas and on our website at www.lincoln.gov.uk.

8. What do I do if I wish to comment on a service provided?

We aim to get it right first time. But we deal with thousands of housing enquiries each year, and occasionally things go wrong. If they do, we want you to know that we will take action to put them right as quickly as possible.

Dealing with Complaints

We will:

- Aim to provide the best possible services that meet customers' needs;
- Welcome all comments on service delivery and view complaints as constructive feedback;
- Aim to resolve complaints efficiently and effectively within set timescales and to the customers' satisfaction;
- Arrange for an officer to write down your complaint if you are unable to put your formal complaint in writing;
- Advise you if your complaint should be more appropriately dealt with by way of statutory review or appeal and explain how to apply for any such review/appeal;
- Try to resolve initial complaints informally and arrange for the responsible Manager to write to you within 15 working days of receiving your complaint with a written explanation for the decision/action taken in response to your complaint;
- Give you an opportunity to submit a formal complaint if you remain dissatisfied and arrange for the responsible Service Manager or Head of Service to investigate your complaint and respond to you with their findings within 15 working days of receiving the full details of your complaint;
- Give you a right of review by an independent Complaints Officer appointed by the Chief Executive or a right of appeal to the Housing Appeals Panel as appropriate.
